

Inclement Weather and Cancellation of Classes/Training

The PSU Child Welfare Partnership Training Unit (the Training Unit) inclement weather delays and closures are determined by Chemeketa Community College's (CCC's) inclement weather delays or closures. The Training Unit does not automatically follow PSU Main Campus delays or closures, because weather patterns may differ between Salem and Portland.

Chemeketa regularly opens at 8:00 am, so if there is a two hour delay, the campus will open then at 10:00 am. In this circumstance, training for the day will then start at 10:00 am.

The easiest source to determine if the Training Unit is on a delay or closure is to listen to TV or radio. If CCC must have a delay or closure due to snow or other inclement weather, notification is made to nearly all media sources in the Portland, Salem, Keizer, Woodburn, Dallas, McMinnville and Albany areas. CCC and other school closures are widely publicized on local TV and radio stations, some of which are listed here.

Please be sure to check on Chemeketa delays and closures not Portland State University or Salem/Keizer School District.
